

Refund Policy

Effective Date: 1 May 2026

1. Purpose of This Policy

This Refund Policy explains the rules and procedures relating to payments, cancellations and refunds for all courses delivered by Kingsbridge Communication Academy (KCA). By enrolling on any programme, students confirm that they have read, understood and accepted this policy in full.

2. General Principle

KCA delivers structured, small-group courses with limited places. When a student enrolls, their place is reserved exclusively for them and cannot easily be resold. For this reason, refunds are subject to the conditions outlined within this policy and are clearly defined.

3. Consumer Cancellation Rights

Students may have certain cancellation rights under applicable UK consumer protection legislation relating to online and distance services.

Where a student enrolls onto a course that begins within 14 days of booking, the student agrees that KCA may begin providing services immediately. Once the course has commenced, cancellation rights may be reduced or lost in accordance with applicable regulations.

Students are encouraged to review all course details, schedules and commitments carefully before enrolling.

4. Refunds Before the Course Starts

Students who cancel their enrolment at least 14 days before the official course start date will normally be entitled to a full refund of any fees already paid.

Cancellation requests must be submitted in writing via the official KCA contact email address.

Approved refunds will normally be processed within 10 working days using the original payment method.

5. Cancellations Before Official Course Start Date (Short Notice)

Where a student cancels less than 14 days before the official course start date, KCA may retain part of the course fee to reflect administrative preparation, reserved class places and scheduling commitments already made.

In most cases, students cancelling within this period will normally be eligible for up to a 50% (percent) refund of fees already paid, depending on the level of administrative preparation and scheduling already completed.

6. Refunds After the Course Has Started

Once a course or programme has commenced, fees paid for services already delivered are normally non-refundable.

KCA may, at its discretion, consider exceptional circumstances on a case-by-case basis. Any goodwill adjustment, transfer or partial refund offered does not create an automatic right to refund.

Students are responsible for ensuring they are reasonably able to commit to the course before enrolling.

7. Payment Structures

Payment structures, instalment schedules, course durations and study formats vary depending on the programme enrolled upon.

Students agree to follow the payment schedule applicable to their specific course or programme.

Any fees paid for portions of a course already delivered are normally non-refundable.

Course fees are charged for access to the programme as a whole and are not calculated on a per-session basis unless explicitly stated otherwise.

8. Non-Payment

Students who fail to make payments in accordance with their agreed course payment schedule may have access to classes, learning platforms, materials or services suspended until payment is received.

Continued non-payment may result in withdrawal from the course or programme. Any outstanding fees relating to services already delivered, may still remain payable.

9. Missed Sessions

Missed lessons do not qualify for refunds, discounts, replacements or compensation. Students are responsible for managing their own attendance and participation. Failure to attend sessions does not create any right to financial reimbursement.

10. Exceptional Circumstances – Administrative Discretion

Refunds after the course has started are not provided. However, in rare and genuinely exceptional circumstances, KCA may, at the discretion of KCA, consider a partial goodwill adjustment. Any such decision is entirely discretionary and does not create a right to refund.

11. Transfer to Another Group

In limited exceptional cases, KCA may permit a student to transfer to another suitable course or group instead of providing a refund. Transfers are subject to availability and are not guaranteed. Approval of any transfer is entirely at the discretion of Kingsbridge Communication Academy.

12. Course Cancellation by KCA

If Kingsbridge Communication Academy cancels a course for any reason, students will receive a full refund of any unused fees or the option to transfer to another available course or future intake.

13. Method of Refund

Any approved refunds will be issued using the original payment method only. KCA is not responsible for any third-party transaction or currency conversion fees.

14. Changes to This Policy

KCA reserves the right to update or amend this policy when necessary. Any changes will be communicated to students.

Authorised by:

Choudhry Zeeshan Khan

Director & Principal Tutor – Kingsbridge Communication Academy
Certified Level 5 TEFL Educator (in progress)